UNIT-II INCOMEEXEMPTEDFROMTAX

Meaningandimportanceofresidentialstatus

ThetaxabilityofanindividualinIndiadependsuponhisresidentialstatusinIndiaforany particular financial year. The term residential status has been coined under the income taxlaws of India and must not be confused with an individual's citizenshipof India. An individualmay be a citizen of India but may end up being a non-resident for a particular year. Similarly, aforeign citizen may end up being a resident of India for income tax purposes for a particularyear.

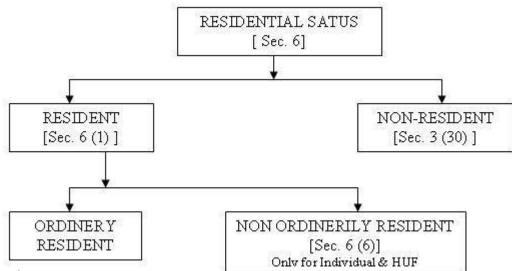

Also to note that the residential status of different types of persons via an individual, afirm, a companyetc is determined differently in this article, we have discussed about how theresidential status of an individual taxpayer can be determined for any particular financial year

Howtodetermineresidentialstatus?

ForthepurposeofincometaxinIndia, the incometax laws in India classify taxable persons as:

- > Aresident
- Aresidentnotordinarilyresident(RNOR)
- Anon-resident(NR)

Thetaxabilitydiffersforeachoftheabovecategoriesoftaxpayers.Beforewegetintotaxability,letusfirs tunderstandhowataxpayerbecomes aresident,anRNORor andNR.

Resident

AtaxpayerwouldbequalifiedasaresidentofIndiaifhesatisfiesanyoneofthefollowing2cond itions:

- StayinIndia for ayear is182daysormore
- StayinIndiafortheimmediately4precedingyearsis365daysormoreand60daysormor eintherelevantfinancialyear

In the event an individual leaves India for employment during an FY, he will be qualified as a resident of India only if he stays in India for 182 days or more. else the condition (b) above60 days willnotapplytohim

ResidentNotOrdinarilyResident

If an individual qualifies as a resident, the next step is to determine if he/she is a Resident ordinarily resident (ROR) or an RNOR. He will be a ROR if he meets both the following conditions:

- Has been a resident of India For at least 2 out of 10 years immediately, For thepreviousyears
- Has stayed in India for at least 730 days in 7 immediately after the precedingyears

Therefore, if any individual fails to satisfy even one of the above conditions, he would beanRNOR.

Non-resident

An individuals a tis fying neither of the conditions stated in (a) or (b) above would be an NR for the year.

Taxability

Resident:

A resident will be charged to tax in India on his global income i.e. income earned in Indiaaswellastheincomeearned outsideIndia.

NRandRNOR:

Their tax liability in India is restricted to the income they earn in India. They are not inneedtopayanytaxin Indiaontheirforeignincome.

Also note that in case of double taxation of income where the same income is gettingtaxedinIndiaaswellasinabroad,onemayresorttotheDoubleTaxationAvoidanceAgreement (DTAA) that India would have entered into with the other country in order toeliminatethepossibilityofpayingtaxestwice.

Scopeoftotalincome

Section -5 of Income Tax Act, 1961 provides Scope of total Income in case a person whoisaresident,notanordinarilyresidentinIndiaandpersonwhoisanon-residentwhichincludes. Income can be Income from any source which (a) is received or is deemed to bereceived in India in such year by or on behalf of such person; or (b) accrues or arises or isdeemed to accrue or arise to him in India during such year; or (c) accrues or arises to himoutside Indiaduring suchyear.

Gratuity

Gratuity is a payment received by an employee by his employer as a gratitude for the employee's services to the organization. It is over & above normal salary & other retirementbenefits received by an employee.

Taxability of

GratuityPension

Pension means the employer provides to the employee a fixed monthly amount after his retirement in consideration of pasts ervices. Pension can also be called as annuity.

Thereare2typesofpension:

UncommutedPension:

The employer provides the employee with monthly pension till the lifetime of the employee starting postretirement.

Example:Manishworkedforacompanyforpast20years.Afterretirementthecompanypayshim Rs.5,000/-permonthinappreciation of hispast servicestothecompany.

CommutedPension:

The employee may request his employer to pay him a lump sum amount of money onretirementratherthanprovidingamonthlyamount. The employee can even request that out of the monthly pension, a certain part lets say 50% be given to him on retirement as a lump sum amount and receive the balance part monthly post retirement. This is known as commuted pension.

Example: Manish worked for a company for past 20 years. After retirement the company payshim Rs. 5,000/- per month in appreciation of his past services to the company. Now, Manishrequest the Company that instead of Rs. 5,000/- per month, he requires the entire amount posthisretirementitself. This is a case of commuted pension.

ProvidentFund

It is a savings scheme wherein a person saves a certain amount of money every year andreceives the cumulative amount of money on retirement. There are various types of ProvidentFunds.Theyareasfollows:

PublicProvidentFund(PPF):

Itisanaccountwhichmaybeopenedfromanationalizedbank.OnlyindividualcanopensuchPPFAc counts withannualcontributionsaslow as Rs.500/-.

StatutoryProvidentFund:

This is applicable only to individuals employed with the Government, railways or allrecognized educational institutions. The Government and the employee contribute a certainportion of the employee's salary to this fundmonthly.

RecognizedProvidentFund:

If the Provident Fund is approved by the Commissioner of Income-tax, it is known as Recognized Provident Fund. In recognized provident fund the employerand the employeecontribute acertain portion of the salary of the employeet other fund.

UnrecognizedProvidentFund:

A fund, which is not recognized by Income Tax Authorities, in which the employer andthe employee contribute a certain portion of the salary of the employee, is an UnrecognizedProvidentFund.

Taxability of Provident FundPublicProvidentFund: The amount of Contribution made to PPF in a Financial Year is allowed as Deduction U/s80C subject to specified conditions. The amount of interest accrued is exempt from tax. If theamounts are withdrawn from PPF in specified manner then such withdrawals are also exemptfromtax.

StatutoryProvidentFund:

The amount of Contribution made by the Government is exempt from tax. Employee'scontribution to Statutory Provident Fund is allowed as Deduction U/s 80C subject to specifiedconditions. The amount of interestaccrue disexempt from tax. The amount received on retire ment out of such fundisexempt from tax.

RecognizedProvidentFund:

It is a fund, which is recognized by the commissioner of income tax. This type of fund ismaintainedbybusinesshouses, industrial under takings and banks. Under this fund both employee and employer will contribute. Employee's contribution qualifies for deduction u/s80C. Employer's contribution over 12% of mentioned salary is taxable. Interest is exempted upto 9.5%

UnrecognizedProvidentFund:

The amount of contribution made by the employer is not taxable in the hands of the employee during the years when such amounts are being contributed. Employee's contribution to Unrecognized Provident Fund is not allowed as deduction. The amount of interest accrued is not taxable in the year of accrual. The amount received on retirement out of such fund is required to be bifurcated in 4 categories in order to understand its taxability.
